

ORDINANCE 16-06

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE TOWN OF MILLVILLE CODE AT CHAPTER 155, ARTICLE IX
“SIGN REGULATIONS” RELATING TO SIGNS.

WHEREAS, the Town Council of Millville has the power to adopt ordinances for the protection and preservation of Town property, rights and privileges; for the preservation of peace and good order; for securing protection and promotion of health, safety, comfort, convenience, welfare and happiness of the residents of the Town;

WHEREAS, the Town Council of Millville has the power to enact zoning regulations pursuant to Title 22, Chapter 3 of the Delaware Code;

WHEREAS, the Town of Millville has adopted a Zoning Ordinance for the municipality, which has been codified in Chapter 155 of the Town Code; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 155, Article XIII provides that the Town Council may from time to time amend, supplement, or change the regulations and restrictions established by this Ordinance;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED, by the Town Council for the Town of Millville, Sussex County, Delaware, a majority thereof concurring Council duly met, following a duly noticed public hearing held on April 12, 2016, that the following language hereby is adopted and incorporated into the Town of Millville Code and Zoning Ordinance at Chapter 155, Article IX “Sign Regulations” as follows:

Additions will be in black bold and underlined.

~~Deletions will be black bold strike through.~~

ARTICLE IX SIGN REGULATIONS

§ 155-40. Definitions.

For the purpose of this article, certain terms and words pertaining to signs are hereby defined:

BULLETIN BOARD - ~~A sign of permanent character but with movable letters, words or numerals, indicating names or persons associated with, or events conducted upon, or products or services offered upon, the premises which the sign is maintained.~~ A wall sign consisting of a board for the posting of bulletins, notices, events, and announcements. The board itself does not have any message.

BUSINESS SIGN - A sign directing attention to a business, service, or the entertainment conducted, sold, or offered upon the same premises upon which the sign is maintained.

~~CHANGEABLE SIGN - A sign with the capability of content change by means of manual or remote input, including signs which are:~~

A detached sign that is designed so that the characters and letters can be changed or rearranged manually, but not electronically, without altering the face of the surface of the sign, and which may be affixed to another permitted sign to appear as one (1) sign.

- ~~A. — Electrically activated. Changeable sign whose message copy or content can be changed by means of remote electrically energized on-off switching combinations of alphabetic or pictographic components arranged on a display surface. Illumination may be integral to the components, such as characterized by lamps or other light-emitting devices; or it may be from an external light source designed to reflect off the changeable component display. See also “Electronic message sign or center.”~~
- ~~B. — Manually activated. Changeable sign whose message copy or content can be changed manually.~~
- ~~C. — Electronic Message Sign or Center. An electrically activated changeable sign whose variable message capability can be electronically programmed.~~

DETACHED SIGN - A self-supporting sign resting on or supported by means of poles, standards or any other type of base on the ground (ground, monument, and pole).

ELECTRONIC VARIABLE MESSAGE BOARDS - A sign, or portion of a sign, that displays an electronic image, video, or both, which may include text. Such signs include any sign, or portion of a sign, that uses changing lights to form the sign’s message or uses electronic means to change the sign’s message. Electronic message boards include but are not limited to signs also known as Electronic Reader Boards, Electronic Message Center Signs, Tri-Panel Message Systems, and Commercial Electronic-Variable Message Signs (CEVMS).

FRONT FAÇADE LENGTH - Those portions of a façade which face or are parallel to the front of the front lot line or street.

ILLUMINATED SIGN - A sign characterized by the use of artificial light, either projecting through its surface(s) (internally illuminated); or reflecting off its surface(s) (externally illuminated).

~~INSTRUCTIONAL SIGN - A sign conveying instructions with respect to the premises on which it is maintained such as “entrance,” “exit,” “no trespassing,” and similar signs.~~

POLITICAL SIGN - A temporary sign permitted no sooner than ninety (90) days before a contested election for an intended to advance a political candidate for office of the Town of Millville, School District, County, State or Federal election or referendum and removed no later than fourteen (14) days after that contested election or referendum.

PROJECTING SIGN - A sign other than a wall sign, which projects from a structure or building face. An example includes an awning sign.

SANDWICH BOARD SIGN - Any self-supporting "A" shaped freestanding sign with only two (2) visible sides.

SETBACK - An open space, on the same premises as the sign, which lies between the edges of the sign structure nearest to the property line.

SIGN - Any device designed to inform or attract the attention of persons not on the premises on which the sign is located.

SIGN AREA - The area of a sign shall include the entire display area of the sign, including all of the elements of the matter displayed on all surfaces. Frames not bearing letters, numbers or other symbols conveying information shall not be included in computation of the surface area, but are subject to size limitations.

WALL SIGN - A sign painted on or affixed to and mounted parallel to a building façade or wall in such a manner that the façade or wall becomes the supporting structure for the signs.

§ 155-41. (Reserved)

§ 155-42. Location of Signs.

- A. Detached. A detached sign which shall include any permanent sign supported by uprights or braces placed upon, or in, or supported by the ground and not attached to any building.
  - (1) A detached sign may be either parallel or perpendicular to the face of a building, provided the building is facing a publicly maintained street, or facing a proposed street meeting all the criteria of a publicly maintained street;
  - (2) A detached sign shall have a minimum setback of ten (10) feet from the front property line and twenty-five (25) feet from any other property line. For any sign with a length greater than the height, the bottom of the sign shall be no higher than ten (10) feet. For any sign with a height greater than the length, the bottom of the sign shall be no higher than eight (8) feet; and

- (3) A detached sign shall not interrupt existing sign continuity on the street for which it is proposed, nor shall there be more than one (1) detached sign on a lot or undivided parcel of land.
- B. Projection. Projecting signs shall include any sign which is attached to a building and extends into the required setback area for the building. Projecting signs are subject to the following:
- (1) No projecting sign shall project or extend more than five (5) feet into a required building setback;
  - (2) No projecting sign shall be permitted which obstructs or interferes or in any way becomes a hazard to the orderly movement of pedestrian and/or vehicular traffic;
  - (3) No projecting sign shall exceed in thickness twelve (12) inches measured between the principal sides of any projecting signs;
  - (4) Any projecting sign or part thereof, placed above a sidewalk, public way, etc., shall be a minimum of eight (8) feet from the bottom of the sign to the walking surface or public way and no part thereof may extend beyond the roofline at any point; and
  - (5) No projecting sign shall exceed twenty-four (24) square feet on any single face, or a total of forty-eight (48) square feet.
- C. Wall. Any sign attached to and erected parallel to the face or the outside wall of a building shall not extend more than twelve (12) inches from the building wall. A wall sign may not extend beyond the wall or above the roof of the building on which it is located.

  - ❖ ~~Signs may be erected no sooner than ninety (90) days prior to any contested election or referendum and shall be removed within fourteen (14) days following the election or referendum;~~
  - ❖ No sign shall be placed closer than twenty-five (25) feet to an intersection;
  - ❖ No ~~political~~ signs shall be erected in a right-of-way;
  - ❖ No permit is required.

§ 155-45. Sign permit requirements; responsibility for compliance; removal of signs.

- A. No sign permitted herein shall be erected, constructed, posted, painted, altered, maintained or relocated except as provided in this article and in these regulations until a permit has been issued by the Millville Code Enforcement Officer. Before any permit is issued, an application provided by the Town of Millville shall be filed, together with two (2) sets of drawings and specifications (one (1) to be returned to the applicant) as may be necessary to fully advise and acquaint the Code Enforcement Officer or his designee with the location, construction material, manner of illuminating and/or securing or fastening, and number of signs applied for and the wording of the sign or advertisement to be carried on the sign. All signs shall be erected on or before the expiration of six (6) months from the date of issuance of the permit; otherwise, the permit shall become null and void and a new permit shall be required. Each sign requiring a permit shall be clearly marked with a permit number. Fees for sign permits shall be in accordance with the schedule adopted by the Millville Town Council, a copy of which is maintained in the Town Office.
- B. The following signs may be erected or constructed without a permit:
- (1) Signs erected or caused to be erected by any law or government agency;
  - (2) Changes on a bulletin board or display encasement for a shopping center;
  - (3) Temporary real estate advertising signs in conformance with this article;
  - (4) Temporary signs erected in connection with new construction in conformance with this article;
  - (5) Signs on a truck, bus, or other vehicle while in use in the normal course of business; and
  - (6) Temporary yard sale signs erected on the premises of the yard sale in conformance with this article-~~;~~ and
  - (7) Changes of letter on a changeable sign.
- C. The Code Enforcement Officer, upon application, may issue temporary permits for the above signs for a period not exceeding fifteen (15) days, when in his opinion the use of such signs and displays would be in the public interest and would not result in damage to private property.
- D. The owner and/or tenant of the premises and the owner and/or erector of the sign shall be held responsible for any violation of these regulations. Where a sign has been erected in accordance with these regulations, the sign company shall be relieved of further responsibility under these regulations after final approval of the sign by the Code Enforcement Officer.

- E. All signs shall be maintained in good condition and appearance. After due notice has been given as provided below, the Code Enforcement Officer or his designee may cause to be removed, at the owner's expense, any sign which shows gross neglect or becomes dilapidated, or which may threaten the public safety.
- F. The Code Enforcement Officer or his designee shall remove or cause to be removed, at the owner's expense, any permanent sign erected or maintained in conflict with these regulations, if the owner or tenant of either the site or the sign fails to correct the violation within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Code Enforcement Officer. Removal of a sign shall not affect any proceedings instituted prior to removal of such sign.
- G. The Code Enforcement Officer or his designee shall remove or cause to be removed any temporary sign erected in violation of the provisions of this chapter. Whenever possible, within twenty-four (24) hours of the removal of the sign, the Code Enforcement Officer or his designee shall notify the owner of the sign that the sign has been removed. If, after ten (10) days, the owner of the sign does not retrieve the sign from the Town, the Code Enforcement Officer may dispose of the sign. If an owner has signs removed more than twice in a year, the Town may retain and dispose of the sign without notice to the owner.

§ 155-47. Nonconforming sign regulations.

Where a nonconforming sign exists on the effective date of this chapter, such sign may be continued, subject to the following provisions:

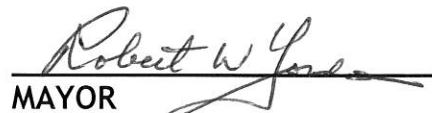

A. No sign may be enlarged or altered in any way which increases its nonconformity;

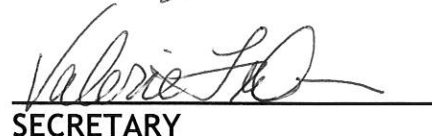

- B. If the sign is destroyed by any means to an extent of more than fifty percent (50%) of its replacement cost, it shall not be reconstructed except in compliance with the provisions of this article;
- C. Every sign, billboard or other advertising structure in existence on the date of the adoption of this chapter which violates or does not conform to the provisions hereof shall be removed, altered or replaced so as to conform with the provisions of this chapter within two years. After two years' time, the Town can remove the signage with the cost of removal borne by the sign owner;
- D. Any sign, including its supporting structure, which advertise or identifies a closed or abandoned business, shall be removed by removed by the owner of the property or the person having beneficial use of the property upon which the abandoned sign is located within sixty (60) days after the business closes. After the sixty (60) day period, the Code Enforcement Officer shall remove the sign or have the sign removed at the property owners expense, provided that the owner has been issued a notice ten (10) days' prior of the violation, in writing, by the Code Enforcement Officer.
- E. The Code Enforcement Officer or his designee shall remove or cause to be removed, at the owner's expense, any permanent sign erected or maintained in conflict with these regulations, if the owner or tenant of either the site or the sign fails to correct the violation within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Code Enforcement Officer. Removal of a sign shall not affect any proceedings instituted prior to removal of such sign.
- F. The Code Enforcement Officer or his designee shall remove or cause to be removed any temporary sign erected in violation of the provisions of this chapter. Whenever possible, within twenty-four (24) hours of the removal of the sign, the Code Enforcement Officer or his designee shall notify the owner of the sign that the sign has been removed. If, after ten (10) days, the owner of the sign does not retrieve the sign from the Town, the Code Enforcement Officer may dispose of the sign. If an owner has signs removed more than twice in a year, the Town may retain and dispose of the sign without notice to the owner.
